Frequently Asked Questions

What is a reverse trade show?

A reverse trade show is an event where the buyers of public entities exhibit at booths and vendors are able to network with them.

How many individuals from my company can register?

As there are a limited number of tickets, each company will only be allowed to register four employees.

Will tickets be sold on the day of the event?

No, tickets will only be sold online prior to the event.

What is the refund policy?

Refunds will not be offered but registrants may transfer registration to another party within your organization. Please update the registration information if transferring tickets.

When will registrants receive badges?

Badges will be available at the sign-in tables on the day of the event. Sign-in will begin at 8 AM.

What is a One-On-One with a purchasing director?

Registrants will be able to sign up to meet with a purchasing director to discuss opportunities to do business with the director's entity.
